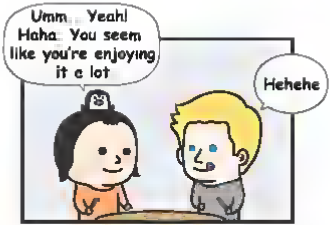
Because I Love You

I wonder why

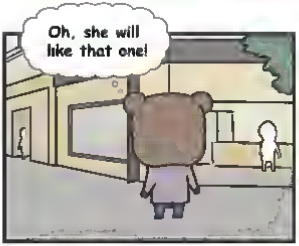
How come we are as happy as we got something when the other got it when we're in love?



Like the saying:
When I look at you eating food,
it makes me feel full.

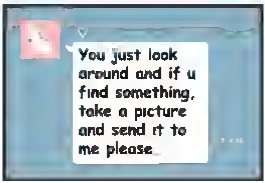
Gomkoko had a plan to visit Korea
for a short holiday from America.

As far as I know,
Gomkoko has no interest in fashion
or beauty at all like Mev.

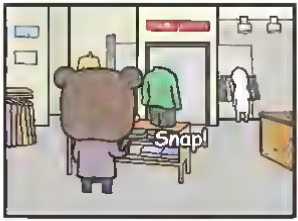


He always gets busy shopping
just before he comes to see my sister.

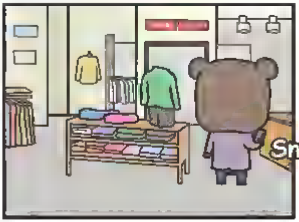
This time, of course
he didn't miss shopping for her.



One day, he was shopping while he was talking to my sister on e messenger epp

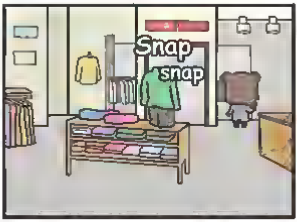


As the signal wasn't very good in the shop,...



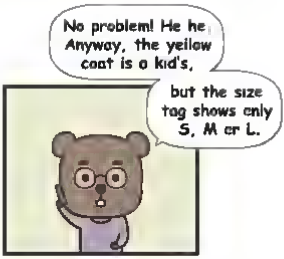
Snap

No~ It's OK!
Hang on a sec,
I'll be back



... he was very busy to move in and out for a while.

It made him feel a bit embarrassed.



However, he was just happy because of her.

To decide which size to buy, Gomkoko went to inside the shop again.

Soon, he sent this message
to my sister

The man's sight,
looking at another man
who wants a yellow kid's coat
